

Connexion Technologies Partners with Interurban Properties

Cary-based technology company to serve thousands of residents in Interurban communities nationwide.

Cary, North Carolina, March 8, 2011 – Connexion Technologies today announced its partnership with Interurban Companies, an investment asset management group, which began forming investment partnerships in 1979. Connexion will create a customized network solution for the delivery of services such as television, high-speed Internet, and telephone.

Connexion Technologies will work with several of Interurban’s multifamily communities across the country. The Colorado-based company works with approximately 5000 units primarily in Texas and North Carolina.

“Our unique business model allows us to deliver a customized technology solution that best fits the needs of each property,” said Carter Teague, executive vice-president of Connexion Technologies. “By welcoming and managing a wide variety of leading service providers on our infrastructure, we can enable the delivery of a robust selection of service offerings at a significant savings.”

“We are very pleased to be partnered with Connexion Technologies,” said Doug Gordon of Interurban Companies. “Connexion Technologies can be our single-source solution for all of our properties’ telecommunications needs. We look forward to the availability of a fiber-optic network connection for our residents as well as working with Connexion Technologies to making the most of the value-add of these networks.”

About Connexion Technologies

Connexion Technologies customizes and manages advanced communications networks in residential properties nationwide. Its networks optimize the communication experience and value of properties for residents and owners. Connexion Technologies is not a service provider, rather it selects and manages providers that offer entertainment and communication applications, including enhanced television, telephone and Internet services over Connexion’s provider-neutral networks. The company is based in Cary, North Carolina. It was established in 2002 and serves properties nationwide.
